Discipline is of the utmost importance in student life. If the young students do not obey their superiors and go without discipline, they will be deprived to do much of the training they should have at this period, and in the future, they will never be able to extract obedience from others in the society. Society will never accept them as persons fit for commanding, and taking up any responsible positions in life. So, it is the duty of all the students to observe discipline in the preparatory stage of their life. A college without discipline can never impart suitable education to students. The rule of discipline in the playground and the battle field plays a very important role. A team without discipline may not play well in spite of good players. In any army everyone from the rank of the general down to the ranks of an ordinary soldier must observe discipline. In case a soldier does not obey his immediate superior, the army becomes a rabble quite unfit for the achievement of the common ends of war. At first sight it may appear to us that discipline takes away individual's liberty. But on analysis, it is found that it does not do so, for liberty is not license. We find disciplined liberty at the root of all kinds of human happiness.
